

Freddie Mac Confirms Disaster Relief Policies as Tropical Storm Barry Approaches

July 12, 2019

MCLEAN, Va., July 12, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Freddie Mac today reminded Single-Family mortgage servicers of its disaster relief policies for borrowers affected by Tropical Storm Barry. Freddie Mac's disaster relief options are available to borrowers whose homes or places of employment are located in federally-declared Major Disaster Areas where federal individual assistance programs are made available to affected individuals and households.

In areas where the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has not yet made individual assistance available, mortgage servicers may immediately leverage Freddie Mac's short-term forbearance programs to provide mortgage relief to their borrowers affected by the storm.

"Safety is our top priority for those in Louisiana and nearby states as Barry approaches," said Yvette Gilmore, Freddie Mac's Vice President of Single-Family Servicer Performance Management. "Once safe from this dangerous storm, we strongly encourage homeowners whose homes or places of employment have been impacted by the storm to call their mortgage servicer—the company to which borrowers send their monthly mortgage payments—to learn about available relief options. We stand ready to ensure that mortgage relief is made available."

News Facts:

- Freddie Mac Single-Family disaster relief policies authorize mortgage servicers to help affected borrowers in eligible disaster areas: those federally-declared Major Disaster Areas where federal individual assistance programs have been extended. A list of these areas can be found on FEMA's website.
- Freddie Mac Single-Family mortgage relief options for affected borrowers in eligible disaster areas include:
 - Suspending foreclosures by providing forbearance for up to 12 months;
 - Waiving assessments of penalties or late fees against borrowers with disaster-damaged homes; and
 - Not reporting forbearance or delinquencies caused by the disaster to the nation's credit bureaus.
- Freddie Mac is reminding servicers to consider borrowers who are impacted by the storm, but who live and work outside of an eligible disaster area, for Freddie Mac's standard relief policies, which include forbearance and mortgage modifications.
- Affected borrowers should immediately contact their mortgage servicer—the company to which they send their monthly mortgage payment.
