

Freddie Mac Multifamily to Offer Social Bonds Issuance Supporting Housing for Individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities

June 17, 2024

MCLEAN, Va., June 17, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Freddie Mac (OTCQB: FMCC) Multifamily today announced that it will soon go to market with the issuance of $186 million in Social Bonds supporting 641 rental homes for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities across 26 states. The proceeds from these Social Bonds help address the significant shortage of community-based homes critical to the deinstitutionalization of care for individuals with disabilities.

The properties provide 2,633 beds, with approximately 79% of beds affordable to people with very low incomes making 50% of the area median income or below, ensuring more individuals with disabilities can live and work in their communities.

This Social Bond structured transaction is a PC-REMIC, Series 2024-P016, issuance backed by a pool of six Multifamily Participation Certificates.

"Freddie Mac Multifamily created Social Bonds to encourage innovative solutions that meet the unique needs of underserved communities and advance our mission," said Robert Koontz, senior vice president of Capital Markets for Freddie Mac Multifamily. "This transaction advances our commitment to safe, affordable housing that meets the needs of the community it serves. We are proud to partner with investors to deliver this essential support to the multifamily housing market."

Freddie Mac Multifamily's Impact Bonds help meet specific housing challenges. Under the company's Social Bonds Framework, the proceeds of Freddie Mac's Social Bonds are used to provide liquidity to social impact financial institutions for financing affordable housing or to finance multifamily properties originated by the Freddie Mac Multifamily Optigo[®] network that are affordable to an underserved population. Freddie Mac Multifamily has issued more than \$7.2 billion in Social Bonds since 2020.

This transaction aligns with the Social Bonds Framework, supporting housing for some of the most vulnerable populations. Freddie Mac's Housing for the Intellectually and Developmentally Disabled Social Bonds are aimed at supporting affordable housing for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities to live and work within their communities while gaining the assistance they need. These properties will be leased out to health care service providers who provide housing to individuals with developmental disabilities, cognitive or mental health issues, as well as housing to teenagers and young adults with the need for drug rehabilitation.
