

Mortgage Rates Increase Once Again

October 24, 2024

MCLEAN, Va., Oct. 24, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Freddie Mac (OTCQB: FMCC) today released the results of its Primary Mortgage Market Survey (PMMS®), showing the 30-year fixed-rate mortgage (FRM) averaged 6.54 percent.

"The continued strength in the economy drove mortgage rates higher once again this week. Over the last few years, there has been a tension between downbeat economic narrative and incoming economic data stronger than that narrative. This has led to higher-than-normal volatility in mortgage rates, despite a strengthening economy," said Sam Khater, Freddie Mac's Chief Economist.
