

Ninth Freddie Mac Guaranteed Multifamily Small Balance Loan Securitization Prices

December 9, 2015

MCLEAN, VA--(Marketwired - Dec 9, 2015) - Freddie Mac (OTCQB: FMCC) announces the pricing of the SB9 offering, a multifamily mortgage-backed securitization backed by small balance loans underwritten by Freddie Mac and issued by a third-party trust. The company expects to guarantee approximately $400 million in SB9 Certificates, which are anticipated to settle on or about December 22, 2015.

"This is the largest small balance loan securitization we have brought to market to date and the first one to include collateral from multiple lenders," said Mitchell Resnick, vice president of Multifamily Capital Markets for Freddie Mac. "As our SBL program continues to develop, we expect to offer additional innovations that will expand funding to this underserved market and shift risk from taxpayers to private capital markets."

Freddie Mac is guaranteeing four classes of senior securities issued by the FRESB 2015-SB9 Mortgage Trust, and is acting as mortgage loan seller and master servicer. In addition to the three senior principal and interest classes and the senior interest only class guaranteed by Freddie Mac, the trust will also issue certificates consisting of the Class B, X2-A, X2-G and R Certificates, which will not be guaranteed by Freddie Mac and will be sold to private investors.

The Small Balance Loan (SBL) origination initiative was first announced in October 2014, and expands the company's continuing effort to better serve less populated markets and provide additional liquidity to smaller apartment properties. Loans in the program generally range from $1 million to $5 million and have five or more units. Freddie Mac has a specialty network of Seller/Servicers and SBL lenders with extensive experience in this market who source loans across the country.
