

Freddie Mac Issues 2016 Funding Calendar

November 19, 2015

MCLEAN, VA--(Marketwired - Nov 19, 2015) - Freddie Mac (OTCQB: FMCC) today issued its 2016 funding calendar, which provides optional announcement dates for Reference Notes[®] securities and announcement and auction dates for Reference Bills[®] securities. The 2016 funding calendar is available on the Debt Securities page of the company's web site at www.FreddieMac.com.

On the Reference Notes announcement dates set forth on Freddie Mac's 2016 Funding Calendar, Freddie Mac will announce whether it plans to issue a Reference Notes security. If a Reference Notes security will be issued, Freddie Mac also will provide relevant transaction information. Future Reference Notes issuances may vary in size and frequency based on the company's funding needs or market demands.

The company's 2016 Funding Calendar provides announcement and auction dates for Reference Bills securities with maturities of one year or less. Reference Bills auctions will be optional each week, occurring on Mondays. If Monday is a holiday, the auction will occur on the next business day. Reference Bills auction announcements will occur in the mornings on the day the auctions will be held.

The announcement is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation to buy any of these securities. Any such offering will be made by an offering circular and, in the case of Reference Notes securities, the applicable pricing supplement.

Freddie Mac was established by Congress in 1970 to provide liquidity, stability and affordability to the nation's residential mortgage markets. Freddie Mac supports communities across the nation by providing mortgage capital to lenders. Today Freddie Mac is making home possible for approximately one in four home borrowers and is one of the largest sources of financing for multifamily housing.
